©CLL-16725 C THE FOX

By Robert North Bradbury.

Bill and Bob in this picture, set out to capture the terror of the barn-yard and the bane of the poultry razer ---- THE FOX. His den is discovered and preparations are then made forthwith for his capture. The capture of the fox is shown and on the way back to the Camp with the animal, the boys sit down to rest for a few moments and in that time comes the call of Spring, the singing of birds and the wonder sounds of nature which make such a strong appeal to the boys that they feel sorry for the captive and release him.
